

Hometown News Release Permission Form

Each year, the Office of Marketing and Communication at Alfred University produces and publicizes hundreds of press releases, photos and videos showcasing our students' accomplishments. From making the Dean's List to performing with a theatrical or musical group, undertaking a class project, showing art work or participating in some other academic or extracurricular activity, we love to get the word out and share student successes. These publications, photos and videos are often sent to hometown newspapers, both online and in print. They may be posted on the Alfred University website or social media channels, used in University marketing materials or distributed to local, regional or national publications.

To give us permission to publicize activities and events you are involved in or your accomplishments at Alfred University, please complete this Hometown News Release Permission Form and return it to the attention of Mark Whitehouse, Director of Communication, Alfred University Office of Marketing & Communication, One Saxon Drive, Alfred, NY 14802 or by email to whitehouse@alfred.edu.
