1.0 INTRODUCTION (Sections 1.1 - 1.4)

1.1 ABOUT THIS HANDBOOK

This handbook is intended to provide a summary of procedures, policies, guidelines, and current benefit plans for Support Staff only. However, it does not constitute a contract between the University and its employees. Contents may be changed, modified, or deleted at any time, with such actions being announced by the Office of Human Resources. Policies and benefits described herein may differ for those groups covered by a collective bargaining agreement.

1.2 EMPLOYEE RELATIONS POLICY

Employees are a critical resource of Alfred University and related policies are meant to help ensure a high quality of work life for employees. In this spirit, it is intended that policy development be established with appropriate consultation in a supportive environment based on mutual trust and respect, within a framework of the highest ethical and professional standards.

1.3 HIRING AND EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

Alfred University is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer and is committed to designing personnel policies that help to ensure equal employment opportunities for all individuals. As such, personnel decisions and practices are based strictly on job-related criteria.

It is against Alfred University’s policy to discriminate against, or tolerate the harassment of, any employee or applicant for employment on the basis of race, color, national origin or ancestry, citizenship, religion, age, gender, gender identity or expression, disability, sexual orientation, marital status, veteran status, military status, genetic predisposition or carrier status, political activities or other protected legal activities conducted outside working hours, and any other status protected by law.
Any employee who believes s/he has experienced such discrimination or harassment should immediately report such action to their supervisor or Office of Human Resources.

1.4 ORGANIZATION AND GOVERNANCE

1.4.1 History of the University

Alfred University was incorporated by special act of the New York State Legislature on March 28, 1857, for the purpose of “promoting education by cultivating art, literature and science.” The New York State College of Ceramics at Alfred University (NYSCC) was created on April 11, 1900 as the “State school of clay-working and ceramics.” It is administered by Alfred University for the State of New York.

Throughout this handbook, references will be made, as appropriate, to “Non-statutory sector” (Private Endowed) or “Statutory Sector” (NYSCC), since certain policies and procedures may apply only to a particular sector. In such cases, application will be specified. Should such specification not be included, it is then to be assumed the text refers to both sectors.

1.4.2 Board of Trustees

The estate, powers and business of the Alfred University Corporation are vested in, controlled, and managed by a Board of Trustees. There are three classes of 11 trustees so that each year a third of the Board comes up for election. University By-laws prescribe how trustees are to be recommended for election by the Board’s Human Resources Committee, a committee composed of the chairs of the Executive, Finance and Academic Affairs Committees. The Chairman of the Board and the President of the University serve as ex officio members of this committee, with other membership eligible for appointment as designated by the Board Chair.

Although the Board provides general oversight in the administration of the University, the President and his Cabinet of senior administrators are charged with the day-to-day operation and administration of the institution.

1.4.3 Organizational Structure

The President presides over the administration of the University. The Cabinet is comprised of the following:

- Provost and Chief Operating Officer
- Vice President of Business and Finance
- Vice President of University Advancement
- Vice President for Enrollment Management
- Vice President for Student Experience
- Secretary of the Corporation

1.4.4 Committee Structure and Policy

The Support Staff Council, with its own constitution and by-laws, exists to represent the needs and concerns of these employees. In addition, many other varied committees exist to advise and assist in conducting University business. Membership and terms vary, as does the level of activity. Personnel are encouraged to become active in such professional services. The Provost and Chief Operating Officer Office maintains and annually distributes a current listing of standing committees and their respective memberships.

2.0 STAFFING (Sections 2.1 - 2.2)

2.1 NEW EMPLOYEES: REGULAR FULL OR PART-TIME

2.2 PROVISIONS OF APPOINTMENT

2.1 NEW EMPLOYEES: REGULAR FULL OR PART-TIME

Prior to rendering service to the University, regular full or part-time employees must schedule a meeting to register with the Office of Human Resources, a step prerequisite to official placement on the payroll, enrollment in applicable benefit programs, and other pertinent employment information.

2.2 PROVISIONS OF APPOINTMENT

2.2.1 Classification

Determined at the time of recruitment, positions are generally designated as falling into one of the following categories: Administration, Faculty, Technical Specialist, or Support Staff.

2.2.2 Full-Time vs. Part-Time Status

Full-time employees are those regularly scheduled to work at least 35 hours per week for a minimum of nine months per year. Those not scheduled according to this standard are considered part-time employees. Letters of appointment specify an employee's full- or part-time status.

2.2.3 Regular vs. Temporary Status

2.2.3.1 Regular

Regular employees are those on the University payroll who are employed for an indefinite time period and who are not designated as temporary.

2.2.3.2 Temporary

Temporary appointments are those granted for a fixed term in order to supplement the regular workforce, and are so defined at the time of employment. Any benefits for Temporary assignments will be outlined in the appointment letter and may vary depending upon length of assignment and full or part time status. Temporary employees are subject to the policies and procedures in this handbook, unless stated otherwise.
Employment beyond an initially determined fixed term is not to be construed as a change in an employee’s temporary status since temporary appointments may be renewed for fixed terms subject to applicable laws and regulations.

2.2.4 Exempt vs. Non-Exempt

Support Staff employees are considered non-exempt employees (paid on an hourly basis), such definition meaning that the employee is subject to the premium overtime pay requirements of the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act and New York State Pay Provisions.

3.0 CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT (Sections 3.1 - 3.10)

3.1 POSITION DESCRIPTIONS
3.2 PROBATIONARY PERIOD
3.3 PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS
3.4 RULES OF CONDUCT
3.5 DISCIPLINARY AND CORRECTIVE ACTION
3.6 GRIEVANCES - OTHER THAN TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT GRIEVANCES
3.7 TERMINATIONS
3.8 SEPARATION PROCEDURES
3.9 BRIDGING OF PRIOR SERVICE
3.10 EMPLOYMENT OF RELATIVES

3.1 POSITION DESCRIPTIONS

An up-to-date position description is required to accompany all recruitment requisition forms filed with the Office of Human Resources. It is the responsibility of both the employing department as well as the Office of Human Resources to keep such descriptions on file.

It is the joint responsibility of the employee and supervisor to review such summaries during annual performance evaluations. At the time of such review, substantial changes should be documented by the supervisor and a revised description placed on file in both the department and the Office of Human Resources.

3.2 PROBATIONARY PERIOD

Upon being hired, rehired, or assigned to a new position support staff employees will serve a probationary period for their first 90 calendar days in the new job. Employee absences or holiday leaves will automatically extend the probationary period by the length of the absence or leave.

During the probationary period, the supervisor will strive to provide the employee with the job knowledge, training, skills and supervision needed to competently perform his/her work. This is an important time for both Alfred University and the employee since it provides the employee with an opportunity to evaluate the University in relation to his/her needs, and provides the University an opportunity to do the same.

Before the close of the probationary period, the supervisor will evaluate the employee’s performance since beginning the job. At that time a decision will be made as to whether to continue or end the employee’s employment. If it is determined that the designated probationary period does not allow sufficient time to thoroughly evaluate the employee’s performance, the probationary period may be extended for up to three additional months. In addition, should the supervisor feel the employee is not making the desired progress at any time during the probationary period, the employee’s employment may be terminated. Satisfactory completion of the probationary period does not guarantee future employment.

3.3 PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS

In a process initiated by the Office of Human Resources, evaluation of all regular support staff is scheduled to take place on an annual basis.

3.4 RULES OF CONDUCT

No listing can capture all responsibilities of employment. The following list contains some, but by no means all, of the more serious infractions, which require disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment with the University:

- Falsifying or misrepresenting University records
- Falsifying time records or failing to record all time worked
- Violating University policies or rules, including but not limited to those set out in this Handbook
- Insubordination or refusal to comply with supervisory instruction
- Engaging in acts of dishonesty, fraud, theft, or unauthorized use of University property or time
- Unauthorized possession of firearms or other weapons on campus
- Physically assaulting, threatening, intimidating, or using abusive language or behavior toward other employees

3.5 DISCIPLINARY AND CORRECTIVE ACTION

3.5.1 Conditions

The University will issue disciplinary or corrective action as appropriate to the facts of a particular situation, the nature of such action dependent on the severity of the problem and other pertinent factors. Action may include, but is not restricted to, a verbal or written warning, suspension with or without pay, or termination of employment. Supervisors are to consult with the Office of Human Resources before undertaking any disciplinary and/or corrective action. All employees, whether temporary or regular, may be terminated at any time and for any reason with or without having received any type of disciplinary and/or corrective action.
3.5.1.1 Verbal Warning

A verbal warning is considered to have taken place when the supervisor verbally informs the employee of a problem related to employment and discusses the need for correction. Supervisors will document such activity and provide a copy to the Office of Human Resources to be included in the employee’s official Personnel File. The verbal warning should include the date of the verbal warning, the nature of the problem and the expectations discussed.

3.5.1.2 Written Warning

A written warning requires that the supervisor inform the employee in writing of the problem, the need for correction, the time period during which correction is to take place, and the consequences of a failure to do so. As evidence of receipt of the written warning, employees will be asked to sign such warnings. A copy of the signed warning notice will be maintained by the supervisor and the original sent to the Office of Human Resources for placement in the employee’s official Personnel File.

3.6 GRIEVANCES - OTHER THAN TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT GRIEVANCES

Employees may, from time to time, have concerns or disputes regarding some aspect of employment. To settle such concerns, employees are invited to discuss such issues with the immediate supervisor. Although this course of action is preferred, employees may also contact the Office of Human Resources to assist in the resolution.

3.7 TERMINATIONS

All support staff, whether regular or temporary, are employed at-will, meaning terminations may occur at any time and for any reason. In all cases of pending termination, supervisors are required to work in coordination with the Office of Human Resources. Termination of temporary employees may occur at any time and for any reason.

3.7.1 Layoffs

Layoffs may occur when a regular (not temporary) job: (1) is eliminated; (2) is redefined and the incumbent does not have the newly required qualifications; or, (3) has evolved in terms of expectations and the incumbent has not kept up with the skills associated with such evolution.

In such cases, the University will provide employees with two weeks wages and one week for each completed year of service with the University, up to a total terminal salary equivalent of six weeks’ pay.

3.7.2 Terminations for Unsatisfactory Work Performance

Termination may occur if, in the judgment of the supervisor, an employee is not satisfactorily performing the responsibilities inherent to the job despite his/her good faith efforts to do so. Before termination, the University will generally provide the employee with written notice of the deficiencies, specifying a period of time for improvement and final consideration. In the case of a termination for unsatisfactory work performance, no severance payments will be made.

3.7.3 Other Terminations

Termination may also occur for reasons other than those involving unsatisfactory work performance or layoff as defined above. Such termination may include, but is not limited to, termination for misconduct. (See “Rules of Conduct” in preceding text for selected examples of misconduct.) In the case of a termination for misconduct, no severance payments will be made.

Should factors related to such termination involve the need for an investigation into employee conduct, the University may suspend or transfer a regular employee until the investigation is completed. In such instances, a regular employee’s compensation will continue at a level consistent with that at which the suspension or transfer occurred.

3.7.4 Termination Grievance Procedure

Eligibility: Regular Employees

A grievance procedure is available to regular support staff employees to help resolve major differences relative to termination. This procedure, which is available to deal with questions of fact, interpretation, and other elements of the personnel dispute (as opposed to matters of University policy) is to function as follows:

3.7.4.1

If an employee has a dispute relating to his or her termination, they should submit the grievance in writing to the Office of Human Resources within five business days of being informed of the termination decision. The Director will review the issues of the complaint with the supervisor, with the HR director, then submit a written decision indicating whether the termination decision is to be upheld.

If the dispute remains unresolved, the employee may, within five business days of being so informed, submit a written request for review by the appropriate Vice President. (Note: Should the immediate supervisor be the Vice President, or if the Vice President made the termination decision, the President will undertake the review.) Following such review, the Vice President will provide final determination on whether the termination is to be upheld.

3.8 SEPARATION PROCEDURES

3.8.1 Notification

The relevant supervisors and Office of Human Resources are to be notified, in writing, as soon as an employee knows they will be leaving University employment, the anticipated last day of work being clearly specified in such communication.
weeks’ notice is customary. The last day actually worked will be the termination date. Employees may not extend their employment by electing to take vacation days after their last day of actual work. On receipt of such written notification, the Office of Human Resources will provide written confirmation of final compensation and benefit arrangements.

As relevant, it is the responsibility of the employee to provide a forwarding address to all involved offices for the purpose of future communication as may be necessary and/or required by law.

3.8.2 Return of University Property

At the time of separation from employment, the employee is required to return all University property. This includes, but is not limited to, such items as the following: handbook, keys, tools, identification cards, supplies, equipment, information/records/documents, and anything else the employee may have that is the property of the University. A checklist will be provided to assist with documenting the return of all required property.

If the employee fails to return University property in his/her possession, the University reserves the right to take appropriate action, hold the employee legally responsible and/or require restitution.

3.9 BRIDGING OF PRIOR SERVICE

Eligibility: Regular Employees, except those covered by a collective bargaining agreement

A regular employee who has prior service with the University may be eligible for bridging of the service based on the Bridging of Prior Service policy.

3.10 EMPLOYMENT OF RELATIVES

No employee shall have supervisory authority over a member of his or her family. Such supervisor relationships create the impression that the supervisor could be influenced by the relationship, either positively or negatively. The full policy may be viewed by clicking Employment of Relatives.

4.6 OVERTIME PAY
4.7 COMPENSATORY TIME
4.8 CALL-BACK TIME
4.9 SPLIT SHIFT
4.10 SHIFT DIFFERENTIAL
4.11 DIRECT DEPOSIT

4.1 RATE BASE AND INCREASES

All regular employees may receive annual across-the-board salary increases, merit increases, a combination of both, when approved by the Board of Trustees. However, compensation adjustments are not guaranteed.

4.2 PAYROLL PERIODS

Alfred University paychecks are distributed on a bi-weekly basis. Employees will be compensated for services rendered in the pay period previous to the date of the check. This is referred to as a lagged payroll.

Special compensation arrangements normally apply to those full-time regular employees working 9, 10 or 11 months per year. Compensation must be distributed within a reasonable timeframe in relation to the time of service. Therefore, employees working 9, 10 or 11 months per year will have their pay stopped during periods in which no service is rendered.

4.3 RECORDING WORK TIME

Accurately recording time worked is the responsibility of every Support Staff employee. Time worked is defined as all-time actually spent on the job performing assigned duties. Employees should record the number of hours worked each day in Bannerweb electronic timesheet record, certifying the accuracy of all time recorded. The supervisor will review and approve all timesheets. If corrections or modifications are made to the time record, both the employee and the supervisor must verify the accuracy of the changes by submitting and approving in Bannerweb. All scheduled time must be accounted for on the electronic timesheet.

All vacation, sick, family sick, floating holiday, merit days, or personal hours must be reflected on that day on the electronic timesheet in Bannerweb. Bereavement, jury duty, snow days, etc. are recorded in the comments section of the electronic timesheet.

4.4 WORK SCHEDULES

The normal work schedule for all Physical Plant and technical employees is eight hours per day, forty hours per week, plus a daily, unpaid meal period of thirty (30) minutes. The normal work schedule for all office clerical and library employees is seven hours per day, thirty-five hours per week, plus a daily, unpaid meal period of sixty (60) minutes (check with your Supervisor for any departmental differences.)

All employees are provided two 15-minute rest periods each day, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. Rest periods are provided on employer-paid time.
4.5 ATTENDANCE AND PUNCTUALITY

Each employee is expected to work their work schedule as assigned by management. Management reserves the right to change an employee’s work schedule at any time as needed, and will try to give the employee as much advance notice as possible given the circumstances.

Only management may make or approve changes to an employee’s work schedule. An employee may not alter their own work hours, make arrangements to have another employee work in their place, work for another employee in their place, or make any other alterations to work schedules without the prior approval of the supervisor.

Punctual and regular attendance is an essential function of the job and is expected of everyone. Punctuality and attendance are as important for satisfactory performance as applying yourself while at work. Whenever you are unable to report for work, you are expected to notify your supervisor as soon as possible, preferably before the start of your work day, for every day you are absent.

In the event that you are absent for three consecutive work days without notifying your supervisor, as required, you will be considered as having resigned unless extenuating circumstances can be shown which made such notification impossible.

4.6 OVERTIME PAY

Alfred University makes every effort to minimize overtime by adequate staffing. Occasionally, however, unusual circumstances may require employees to work in excess of the normally scheduled workweek. If overtime is required, the supervisor will notify the employee as far in advance as possible.

Hours not physically worked for which the employee is paid (such as vacation and sick leave time) are not applied toward overtime or the computation of overtime pay.

Overtime is paid at 1-1/2 times the employee’s normal hourly rate for hours worked in excess of 40 hours in a single payroll week (Sunday Midnight to Saturday Midnight).

4.7 COMPENSATORY TIME

Compensatory time is not allowed. Employees may make-up time missed during a regular scheduled day in the same payroll week, as long as the make-up time does not cause the employee to exceed 40 hours in the same week.

4.8 CALL-BACK TIME

Eligibility: Full-time Regular and Part-time Regular Employees

The purpose of call-back pay is to provide the Support Staff employee a minimum pay guarantee for having to come back to work on what would normally be a non-scheduled time for him/her. An employee called back to work outside of his/her normal work hours will be paid for a minimum of four hours at the New York State minimum wage rate, or the number of hours actually worked at his/her normal hourly rate, whichever is greater. Time worked during a call-back will be included in the calculation of overtime pay.
4.9 SPLIT SHIFT

Eligibility: Full-time Regular and Part-time Regular Employees
Employees who work a split shift in which the workday spans 10 hours or more will be paid an additional hour’s work at their regular wage rate. Employees are to note split shift work on their electronic timesheets in the comments section and indicate the hours of service.

4.10 SHIFT DIFFERENTIAL

Eligibility: Regular Non-Statutory sector, Non-Exempt Employees
A $.20 per hour premium will be paid to employees scheduled to work one full shift where at least four hours of the shift fall between the hours of 6:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m.

4.11 DIRECT DEPOSIT

Direct deposit is a service provided to employees by the University for the convenience of the employee. Participants may have paychecks directly deposited into any participating institution. Though this option is normally offered and selected at the employee’s introductory benefits meeting, the election may be started or changed at any time by contacting the payroll office for an authorization form.

The Payroll Department distributes pay advices specifying wages and payroll deductions to all participants via email during the payroll week.

The holiday schedule is published annually on the Human Resources website Holiday Schedule. This benefit is available immediately after hire.

All employees must work their last and first scheduled day adjacent to the Holiday in order to receive holiday pay.

Regular employees, required to work on a University recognized holiday will receive holiday pay and be paid time and one-half for all hours worked on the day for which the University is closed.

Eligibility: Regular Employees

In addition to vacation and paid holidays as noted, support staff is granted one paid Personal Day and one paid Floating Holiday annually on January 1 for non-statutory employees and the anniversary date for the statutory employees. 5.3.3 Vacation Accrual Banks

A bank of earned vacation hours for each employee shall be established and maintained by Human Resource Services. Pay period vacation accrual shall be credited to the employee’s bank of hours following each payday.

Non-Statutory employees can accrue up to 37.5 days in their banks.
Statutory employees can accrue up to 40 days in their banks.

5.3.4 Vacation Not Taken

Because vacation is deemed necessary in order for an employee to get away from the job and have the opportunity for renewal, vacation pay in lieu of vacation time is not offered, except upon termination of employment as stated below.

When employment terminates, whether voluntary or involuntary (except in cases of misconduct), earned unused vacation days are paid to the terminating employee. The last day actually worked will be the termination date.

Statutory Employees will be paid out for: 30 days

If a temporary employee is granted benefit days, all such days must be used prior to termination. All unused benefit days will be forfeited.

5.4.3 Vacation Accrual Banks

A bank of earned vacation hours for each employee shall be established and maintained by Human Resource Services. Pay period vacation accrual shall be credited to the employee’s bank of hours following each payday.

A maximum of 10 days during the first year, 15 days in years 2-5, and 20 days in year six and beyond will be allowed to carry over from the previous anniversary year. Accruals cease when the yearly total is reached and resume once vacation days are taken.

5.4.4 Vacation Not Taken

Because vacation is deemed necessary in order for an employee to get away from the job and have the opportunity for renewal, vacation pay in lieu of vacation time is not offered, except upon termination of employment as stated below.

5.4.5 Vacation and Separation

When employment terminates, whether voluntary or involuntary (except in cases of misconduct), a maximum of five earned unused vacation days are paid to the terminating employee. The last day actually worked will be the termination date.

The employee is eligible for up to a 5 day vacation pay-out, if they have that time in their bank, when terminating employment.

If a temporary employee is granted benefit days, all such days must be used prior to termination. All unused benefit days will be forfeited.

5.5 BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

Eligibility: Regular Employees, except those covered under a collective bargaining agreement

Up to five paid days of Bereavement Leave are provided to allow the employee to mourn and otherwise attend to the death of an immediate family member. Family members are defined to include: spouse or spousal equivalent; child, stepchild, or grandchild; grandparent or parent; sibling; or parent-, son-, daughter- or sibling in-law. This benefit is available immediately after hire.

One work day is provided to allow the employee to mourn the death of a cousin, aunt, uncle, niece or nephew.

Time will be prorated for regular employees who work less than full-time.
As necessary, particularly difficult situations and circumstances related to such bereavement should be brought to the attention of the Director of Human Resources for further consideration. Employees covered by a collective bargaining agreement will be provided benefits in accordance with the agreement in force at the time.

5.6 JURY DUTY, COURT OR OTHER LEGAL HEARING APPEARANCE

To allow the employee to fulfill jury duty responsibilities or otherwise make a court appearance as required by subpoena, leave is provided as necessary. To qualify for such leave, the employee must provide management with a copy of the official papers indicating times and dates to be spent in such activity, notifying the supervisor as soon as possible in the process in order to allow for work coverage during the absence. (The University may employ temporary personnel during such absences.) Should an employee be excused early from such obligations on any given day, s/he is expected to report to work for the remainder of the workday.

Leave for jury duty and court appearances required by subpoena (exclusive of those instances in which the employee him/herself has filed suit) will be paid leave. Those regular Alfred University employees called to jury duty will continue to receive regular hourly wages throughout such service.

5.7 MILITARY LEAVE

The University will comply with all applicable laws regarding employment, reemployment, seniority, leaves, benefits, and other terms and conditions of employment for employees who enlist or are called for active duty or reserve duty in the armed forces of the United States or the military service of the State.

Employees who participate in military reserve training will be excused from work in accordance with the law. In such instances for regular employees, should military pay be less than regular salary, the University will pay the difference between the two sources of compensation for up to two weeks per year. Employees are required to provide copies of their orders to their Supervisor for our records.

5.8.1 Sick Leave and Disability Benefits

All regular, University employees accrue sick leave as detailed in Sick Leave Policy. When a regular employee is absent from work due to illness or injury, s/he is required to use sick days in order to receive full-pay during the first seven calendar days of absence. If the individual does not have sick days to use, s/he must use vacation days, and/or his/her personal day and/or floating holiday. On the eighth day of absence, the employee will begin using a combination of AU sick days and insured Short Term Disability, each source paying up to 50% of the individual’s daily pay for up to 26 weeks from the initial date of disability. If the employee should exhaust his/her AU sick days, s/he will be required to use vacation days and/or his/her personal day and/or floating holiday to supplement his/her insured Short Term Disability benefit. Once the employee exhausts all sick days, vacation days, his/her personal day and floating holiday, s/he will continue to receive insured Short Term Disability payments up to 26 weeks from the initial date of disability.

Payments for absence caused by non-work related injuries may be covered by NYS No-Fault as the primary insurance. In such situations, the University will require employees to use sick days to receive full pay until the primary insurance has made payment. At that time, the employee will be required to reimburse the University and the University will revise the employee’s accruals, as appropriate. If the primary insurance denies coverage in whole or part, the absences will remain charged to the employee’s sick leave.

Absences for which sick days and/or insured Short Term Disability benefits are used may also meet the qualifications for Family and Medical Leave. Please see that policy for applicable rules and guidelines. Additionally, for prolonged absences, the Long-term Disability Policy may apply.

5.8.2 Temporary Disability

Pregnancy and related medical problems, miscarriage, abortion, childbirth, and recovery there from are considered “temporary disabilities” which, to the extent medically verifiable, qualify for sick leave as described according to the applicable sector. Such time as described, as well as sick leave based on other temporary disabilities, will run concurrently with that awarded according to requirements of the Family and Medical Leave Act and the New York State Paid Family Leave Act.

5.8.3 General Policy - Medical Certification

The employee will be required to provide proper FMLA Certification Paperwork from their physician that verifies the beginning and ending dates of illness or injury to certify their leave. Before returning to work, Human Resources will need to be supplied with a fitness for duty form, from the physician, indicating the employee’s readiness to return to work. When requested, such verifications and releases are a condition of receiving sick leave benefits or returning to work. A physician’s statement will be requested for absences of three working days or more.
5.8.4 Unused Sick Days

Except where NYS College of Ceramics employees may avail themselves of sick leave conversion policies as noted above, sick leave unused at the time of separation of employment is not paid out upon separation.

5.9 FAMILY SICK DAYS

All regular employees, not covered by a collective bargaining agreement, will be allowed to use five (5) sick days per year for the purpose of assisting an ill/injured immediate family member. Immediate family members include parent, spouse or AU-certified domestic partner, child, stepchild living (or raised) in the employee’s home. These days are in addition to the Family Emergency Sick Leave granted to attend to an emergency medical situation (requires the employee's presence at home to arrange for care of an ill family member, or at the hospital while the family member undergoes surgery or is hospitalized with a serious illness). Family Emergency sick leave is also limited to five (5) sick days per year. Family sick days may be subject to provisions of the New York State Paid Family Leave Act, depending upon circumstances. Contact the Office of Human Resources for details.

5.10 FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE

Eligibility:

In order to qualify to take family and medical leave under this policy, the employee must meet all of the following conditions:

- The employee must have worked for the University at least 12 months, or 52 weeks. The time period need not have been consecutive.
- The employee must have worked at least 1250 hours during the twelve-month period immediately preceding the date the leave would begin.
- The employee must work at a worksite where 50 or more employees are employed within 75 miles of that worksite.

In compliance with federal requirements, it is Alfred University's policy to grant up to 12 weeks of family and medical leave during a 12-month period to employees meeting the FMLA eligibility criteria. This policy is designed to define employee rights in coordination with other pertinent University policies and as required by the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA). Leave may be paid, unpaid, or a combination of paid and unpaid, depending on the circumstances and as specified in the complete policy. To the extent applicable, the University requires the employee to use sick leave as warranted and other benefit days as they are available. Should paid leave be exhausted before the expiration of the 12 weeks, leave is awarded without pay.

5.11 LEAVE FOR VOLUNTEER FIREFIGHTERS, AMBULANCE DRIVERS AND EMERGENCY MEDICAL TECHNICIANS

Eligibility: Regular Employees

Volunteer firefighters, ambulance drivers, and emergency medical technicians (EMT) affiliated with volunteer fire and/or ambulance departments will be granted excused leave with pay at their straight time hourly rate when responding to emergencies during normally scheduled work hours, provided that these volunteer services are limited to unplanned emergencies.

If a call takes place before the start or extends beyond the end of a workday, employees will be paid only for the time that overlaps regular work hours.

5.12 LEAVE FOR STUDENT ORGANIZATION ADVISORS

Eligibility: Regular Employees, except those covered under a collective bargaining agreement.

Support Staff who serve as officially designated volunteer advisors to University recognized student organizations and who require release time to accompany such organization on overnight, long-distance outings may be provided excused time for up to five work days per calendar year.

5.13 LEAVE OF ABSENCE WITHOUT PAY

Eligibility: Regular Employees

A leave of absence without pay for up to ninety days may be requested by an employee through his/her supervisor or initiated by the University. Approval of the request is at the discretion of the Vice President of the area and the Director of Human Resources. Such a leave may be arranged for a variety of reasons but those reasons should be compelling.

Whenever possible, an employee returning from a leave of absence without pay will be reassigned to his/her former position, or a position of like status and compensation. However, if the circumstances of the employee or those of the University have changed, making it impossible or unreasonable to return him/her to the former position or to a position of like status and compensation, s/he will be assigned to a position for which s/he is qualified, if available.

5.14 EXCUSED TIME FOR COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Alfred University employees who serve on the Support Staff Council will be given reasonable excused time to attend meetings.

5.15 MEDICAL APPOINTMENT LEAVE

Support Staff employees of the non-statutory institution: While appointments should be scheduled outside of the normal work hours when possible, if an employee needs time off to attend to such matters paid time-off will need to be used. Employees may use sick time in one-hour increments to attend to medical appointments for themselves or their immediate family as defined in the employee handbooks. If an individual chooses to make up the time needed for a medical appointment instead of using benefit time, it must be done within the same work-week as the scheduled appointment and must be reflected on time sheets. All time must be made up with the approval of, and in coordination with, the supervisor. University policies regarding proper supervision during the work day need to be followed.
Regular Employees covered by a collective bargaining agreement will be subject to the particular rules as outlined in their contract.

5.16 LEGAL APPOINTMENT LEAVE

Support Staff employees of the non-statutory institution should schedule legal appointments at times that do not interfere with their normal work schedule. When this is not possible, employees must receive pre-approval of such needed time off from their supervisor. If an employee must be out of the office for a legal appointment, both the personal day and floating holiday can now be used in one-hour increments. Otherwise, an employee should use vacation time to account for such time off (vacation time must still be used in ½ day increments).

Regular Employees covered by a collective bargaining agreement will be subject to the particular rules as outlined in their Contract.

5.17 NEW YORK STATE PAID FAMILY LEAVE

Eligibility:

Employees who regularly work at least 20 hours a week will be eligible for paid-family-leave benefits after 26 weeks of employment, and employees who work fewer than 20 hours a week will be eligible after 175 work days. Participation in the program is not optional for employees.

New parents can use the leave for baby bonding in the first year after a child's birth, adoption or foster placement. Employees can also use the paid leave when a family member has a serious health condition or is called to active military duty.

Family members under the new law include: spouses, domestic partners, children, parents, grandparents and grandchildren. A “parent” or “child” is defined as: biological, adoptive, step, foster, or in-law parental relationships.

What PFL can be used for:

- Maternity and Paternity Leave: Leave only begins after birth and is not available for prenatal conditions. A parent may take Paid Family Leave during the first 12 months following the birth, adoption, or fostering of a child.

child, domestic partner or parent of the employee is on active duty or has been notified of an impending call or order of active duty.

5.18 NEW YORK STATE ELECTION LAW

A registered voter may, without loss of pay for up to three hours, take off so much working time as will enable him or her to vote at any election.

The employee shall be allowed time off for voting only at the beginning or end of his or her working shift, as the employer may designate, unless otherwise mutually agreed.

If the employee requires working time off to vote the employee shall notify their employer not less than two working days before the day of the election that he or she requires time off to vote in accordance with the provisions of this section.

6.0 FRINGE BENEFITS, (SECTIONS 6 - 8)

INTRODUCTION: The benefit descriptions in this Handbook, applicable to the Non-statutory sector, NYS College of Ceramics, or both, are summaries and therefore general in nature. In most instances benefits are more fully described in benefit plan documents that are separate from this Handbook and available to employees from the Office of Human Resources. Employees should refer to actual plan documents for complete information and eligibility requirements. Should conflicting language exist between the benefit summaries of this Handbook and the actual plan documents, the plan documents take precedence over the summaries in this handbook. The University and/or the Benefit Plan Administrator have the sole discretion to determine employee benefit eligibility and to interpret and administer these plans.

Employees may add, change, or discontinue certain benefits only during the annually announced Open Enrollment Period or on the occasion of a Qualifying Event. The Office of Human Resources may be contacted for more specific information.

The University reserves the right to amend, delete or change the cost sharing arrangements of any benefit plan, or part thereof, anytime, at its sole discretion, and without prior notice to employees or retirees. In addition, the University offers no guarantee of warranty of benefits to employees or retirees.

All benefits are subject to eligibility requirements. If an employee changes from full to part-time status, or changes job classifications, s/he may lose eligibility for certain benefits described below.

The Tuition Remission Plan provides educational privileges and opportunities for employees and employee family members who meet University established employment, dependent, and admissions requirements. All employees or family members wishing to participate in either an undergraduate or graduate program must apply for admission through the Admissions Office. Family members eligible for the benefit include the following: legal spouse or registered spousal equivalent (hereafter both groups being referred to in this section (and Section 8.10) by the term "spouse"), and dependent children. (Dependent Child is defined as the employee's birth or legally adopted child whose age is less than or equal to 23 years of age on the intended date of matriculation. With appropriate documentation as requested, other situations may be submitted for Tuition Benefit Committee consideration.) Those wishing to participate in the program must submit an application for approval that may be obtained from the Human Resources webpage.

The Plan, which applies only to those courses and curricula provided on the Alfred University campus and considered an integral part of the University Program (exclusive of Study-Abroad and Study-Away Programs) as determined by the University and its Officers, is administered according to the following regulations: *For employees and defined family members, tuition remission is available for undergraduate courses, exclusive of laboratory, student service and other miscellaneous fees. *For employees and spouses (not dependent children), tuition remission is also available for graduate level courses and are subject to federal and state income taxes. *In the Summer School Program and Allen Term classes, tuition remission will apply only to those courses with a sufficient enrollment of paying students. There is no tuition remission for Independent Study in either the Summer School or Allen Term. *In the event of the death or retirement of an employee who at the time of such an event was eligible for the Tuition Remission benefit, the employee and/or family members meeting dependency and other eligibility requirements will continue to qualify for such benefits, subject to the usual conditions and requirements of Tuition Remission. *New York State Tuition Assistance Program Awards (TAP) and other similar awards given through the New York Education Department will serve as an offset to tuition remission (or exchange). However, New York State academic awards will not serve as an offset, with the result that such students will receive the full financial value of the scholarship as a benefit added to that of tuition remission (or exchange).

Before tuition remission credit can be issued, all full-time students are required to file a New York State Express TAP Application before the beginning of each academic year of study.

*To continue eligibility for tuition remission, recipients must demonstrate minimum academic performance standards as outlined in the Alfred University Financial Aid Satisfactory Progress Standards Policy.

*Decisions with respect to the interpretation of the provisions and implementation of this plan, as well as special conditions not covered, shall be made by the Tuition Benefit Committee.

8.14 TUITION EXCHANGE PROGRAM

Eligibility: Dependent Children of Full-time Regular Employees

Because Alfred University is a participating member of the Tuition Exchange Program, a limited number of faculty and staff dependent children may attend, on an exchange basis, a number of colleges other than Alfred University. The number of such children who can become "exports" is determined by the number of "credits" our Institution accumulates as participants from other schools attend Alfred University. As a result, there may frequently be an imbalance between those applying for this benefit and the openings available. Thus, after it is determined that the employee and dependent child are eligible for the benefit, applicant names are forwarded to the Tuition Exchange Committee for consideration in the final selection process. Selection is based on a number of criteria such as: the availability of the desired academic program at Alfred University, the employee's length of service to the University, the applicant's year in college, and the family's prior benefit under the program. After an applicant is selected for the benefit, final participation is contingent on acceptance into the program by the receiving institution.

8.15 ALFRED UNIVERSITY AND ALFRED STATE COLLEGE OF TECHNOLOGY CROSS-REGISTRATION PLAN

Full-time regular Alfred University employees may receive a tuition waiver for cross-registration in courses at Alfred State College. The application process must be initiated and approved by Alfred University before the registration process may be undertaken at Alfred State College. The Office of the Registrar administers cross registration.

8.16 BENEFITS IN RETIREMENT

8.16.1 Health Insurance

8.16.1.1 Non-Statutory Sector

Eligibility: Regular Employees Who Meet Combined Age/Service Requirements. Employee must be at least 55 years of age with a minimum of 10 years of service with age and years of service equal to or greater than 75. An employee who is required to retire early under the terms of an early retirement option and does not meet the 75 rule shall be considered a retiree.
For those employees meeting the combined age and service requirements of the program under which they retire, the University continues to provide the benefit of a group health plan. Under this plan, the University will share in the cost of the premium, at the same rate as active employees.

Once the retiree and/or spouse reaches the age of 65, the University requires that the individual and/or dependent enroll in Medicare Parts A and B in order to continue to receive benefits as described.

8.16.1.2 NYS College of Ceramics

Eligibility: Regular Employees Who Meet Combined Age/Service Requirements as Defined by the Retirement Plan

For those employees meeting the combined age and service requirements of the program under which they retire, the State continues to provide the benefit of a group health plan. Under this plan, the cost of the premium remains the same as that which an employee pays for both single and family coverage. The value of each retiring employee’s remaining sick days at the time of retirement will be applied to the cost of health insurance as per the State’s rules.

Although Medicare allows enrollment up to three months after a person’s 65th birthday, the State health insurance program requires that retirees have Medicare Parts A and B in effect on the first day of the month in which they reach age 65. (Note: It takes up to three months for Medicare to be effective so employees should plan accordingly to avoid a gap in coverage.)

8.16.2 Life Insurance

Eligibility: Eligible Retiree

The University will continue to pay for a reduced amount of Life Insurance up to an amount not to exceed $5,000 in coverage.

8.16.3 Tuition Remission

Alfred University computer users can expect reasonable confidentiality in the messages they receive and the files they create. Information Technology Services and Safety, Security and Telecommunications personnel do not routinely monitor an individual's computer and telephone use, nor do they routinely examine files, read electronic mail, or review phone messages in an individual's account, or review any content on web pages accessible through the University's web site. Employees are expected to read and comply with the Computer Use Policy posted on the AU Web and to conduct electronic communications in the same professional and respectful manner as all other internal or external University communications. Naturally, employees may not use the University’s computer facilities to conduct illegal activities of any sort. Employees who violate this policy may be subject to discipline up to and including discharge.

The University phone system is vital to the operation of University business and should be used primarily for that purpose. However, it is recognized that it is sometimes essential for an employee to make or receive personal calls at work. In such cases, the employee is expected to keep personal calls to a minimum both in frequency and length and that the individual will reimburse the University for any charges resulting from personal telephone use.

11.12 BUSINESS COMMUNICATION ETIQUETTE

Each individual Support Staff employee represents the University in contacts with both internal and external customers. Internal customers include, but are not limited to, current students and anyone working here at the University. External customers include anyone in contact with the University from outside the organization – potential students, parents, alumni, visitors to campus and others. Individuals judge the University not only on the merit of our graduates but also as a result of personal contacts through correspondence, conversation (including via phone, email, etc.) and visits to campus.

Other guidelines apply to purchases over prescribed dollar amounts and may be secured through Procurement Services. For further policies and procedures on purchasing and the bid process, contact Procurement Services.

11.15.2 Property Control

Equipment purchases over $5,000 are considered capital equipment which are managed by the Business Office. When a department that is the custodian of capital equipment determines that a piece of equipment is no longer being used by the department, they are required to notify the Business Office to obtain approval for disposal. For full policy and forms for disposal of an asset, go to the Business Office Website.

11.16 SOLICITATION POLICY

Wishing to maintain a campus environment of academic integrity and personal development, the University recognizes the need to protect this environment from uncontrolled solicitations, while still acknowledging the need of the campus community to support worthy causes and freely exchange ideas.

11.18.2.2 Registration

All motor-operated vehicles must be registered with the Security Office. Permits are issued to regular full-time and part-time employees, and others as appropriate. They will receive one permit in the form of a hangtag that can be transferred from one vehicle to another depending upon employee need. The tag permits the driver to park in authorized areas. In the event of a change in the vehicle or the vehicle plates, the Security Office must be notified of the change within two working days.

11.18.2.3 Authorized and Prohibited Parking Areas

Signs are erected throughout the campus designating given parking areas as either student or faculty-staff areas. Normally restricted faculty/staff areas, however, are open parking from 5 p.m. to 7 a.m.

Parking is prohibited in front of all loading docks, entrances to buildings, crosswalks, and fire hydrants. It is further restricted in any other areas where signs, restrictive guardrails, yellow-curbing, or lines so indicate. Fire lanes are strictly controlled, with only necessary emergency, service, or delivery vehicles authorized to park even temporarily in such locations.

Unauthorized parking may result in ticketing and/or booting of the owner's vehicle.

11.18.2.4 Special Parking

Special parking permits for visitors and campus guests are available from the Security Office. Such permits entitle the bearer to park in designated areas as specified on the permit.

Permits are also available for those with physical disabilities. In such cases, a physician's certification may be required, documenting the need and indicating the period of time for which the permit will be required. 11.18.4 Penalties

Tickets and related fines are invoked by the University for violation of vehicle regulations and are payable at the Business Office within five working days from the date of issuance.

Credit cards registered in the University’s name are available to employees only on a very limited basis, dependent on need and as approved by the applicable Vice President. Use is carefully governed requiring that all expenditures be reconciled with appropriate receipts, and are restricted to business use only.

11.20 PATENT POLICY

11.20.1 General

Patents are valuable to a university and its staff members. Along with publication in scientific journals, they establish dates of scientific contributions, can serve to control the quality of products manufactured by licenses, and may also be a source of income. Alfred University seeks to extend knowledge on one hand and, on the other, to patent information where financial aspects dictate such as an appropriate course. The University will seek to patent only those inventions that represent major compositional or process breakthroughs. Compliance with the Alfred University Patent and Procedure
Policy are essential if the inventor and the University are to obtain maximum benefit from patentable inventions.

A member of the staff of Alfred University is required, as a condition of employment, to submit to the University disclosures of ideas, inventions or discoveries that may be patentable and that were conceived and/or reduced to practice during the inventor’s employment by Alfred University ("Inventions"). Title to all such Inventions shall vest in the University, subject to the terms of any applicable governmental or private funding agreements. However, Inventions that the inventor can demonstrate were conceived or reduced to practice independently from Alfred University will be exempt from these rules. A member of the University staff must recognize both the legal and ethical obligation that s/he has to the employer. Within two months of that time in which a staff member believes that s/he has a patentable Invention, the employee must prepare a disclosure of the discovery for transmittal to the appropriate Dean and/or Vice President. If the invention is the result of a sponsored research effort, a duplicate copy of the related agreement shall be sent with the disclosure. The Dean will then convene a meeting of the Patent Committee. The Committee will then make one of two decisions:

1) Request the Provost and Chief Operating Officer to authorize funds to search the patent literature and/or make other arrangements to evaluate the Invention; or,

2) Assign the University’s rights to the Invention to the inventor.

The complete General University Patent Policy and Procedures text can be found in detail here Patent Policy.

11.20.2 Research Centers

Particular guidelines for Inventions, including patentable Inventions, indigenous to specific Research Centers of Alfred University may be governed by further terms and conditions related to University defined statutes governing a given center as well as those federal, state or other sponsoring directives appertaining thereto. Such relevant guidelines are held in the central repository of the applicable Center, Research Office or Business Office as appropriate and may be accessed therein.

11.21 COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT POLICY

The Copyright Infringement Policy is intended to promote and encourage excellence and innovation in scholarly research and teaching by identifying and protecting the rights of the University, its faculty, staff, and students. At the same time, we must recognize that copyright owners have exclusive rights to reproduce their copyrighted works, to prepare derivative works, to distribute copies and to perform or display the works publicly. Consequently, it is copyright infringement for any person other than the copyright owner to exercise any of the rights listed above unless properly authorized by the owner, or unless the use of the material constitutes "fair use" as provided by Copyright Law (Title 17, United States Code).

All employees involved in the reproduction of copyrighted materials for classroom use, preparation of lectures and/or labs, or other campus organizational use have an important responsibility to use their best efforts to assure that the rights of the copyright owners are recognized and honored. This responsibility involves reading and complying with the Copyright Infringement Policy (click for full policy).
11.22 WEAPONS POLICY

Possession or use of weapons on property owned, affiliated with, or controlled by Alfred University (including sidewalks, driveways and parking lots) or where Alfred University events are occurring, is expressly prohibited, except as may be required by law enforcement officials. This policy further applies to those operating Alfred University Motor Pool vehicles, whether on or off University property. The definition of “weapons” covers all items capable of inflicting serious injury. Examples include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following:

- Firearms
- Knives
- Air Guns
- Spear Guns
- Paint Guns
- Bow and Arrow
- Explosives: Gunpowder, Firecrackers, Ammunition, etc.

Because such items are capable of inflicting serious injury and thereby pose a clear risk to persons and/or property, violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including suspension of students or termination of personnel and may likewise be prosecuted under applicable law. Note: On occasion, academic programs may require the use of tools falling under this definition. Such use, when applied directly to program-related activity, is exempted from this policy.

11.23 AU Intellectual Property Policy

All Intellectual Property conceived or first reduced to practice in whole or in part by Creators in the course of their University responsibilities, which may include, but is not limited to, work on publicly or privately sponsored research, or use of University Resources, shall be disclosed to the University on a timely basis and shall be assigned to the University, unless the University otherwise disclaims such IP or re-assigns it to its Creator(s). At the same time, the University acknowledges a responsibility to ensure that the specific Intellectual Property policies of third-party sponsoring organizations be understood prior to acceptance of funding, and complied with after Intellectual Property is developed.

The University shall have the sole right to determine the disposition of applicable Intellectual Property under this Policy. The determination shall take into account the interests of the University, any external sponsors, the public, and the Creator, including the Creator’s professional or ethical convictions concerning the use of applicable Intellectual Property. Responsibility for disposition of applicable Intellectual Property resides with the Office of the Provost and Chief Operating Officer, consistent with this policy.

Creators shall assist the University as reasonably requested to protect, maintain, and enforce, if applicable, Intellectual Property, including without limitation, executing appropriate assignments and other documents and providing testimony as needed. The University shall reimburse all pre-approved out-of-pocket costs incurred by any applicable Creator in rendering such assistance.
Intellectual Property may be developed under a “sponsored research agreement” where the research is sponsored by an external source (including federal and state agencies). Consistent with its nonprofit status, mission for the public (and not private) good, and federal laws and regulations, the University will own any resulting Intellectual Property. One exception is when the Intellectual Property derives from “prior art” developed by the sponsoring organization; in such cases, joint ownership between the University and Sponsor may be indicated. However, the terms of sponsored research agreements typically provide the sponsor with certain rights to that material, e.g., the grant of the right for a limited period of time to negotiate for an exclusive license of such Intellectual Property with the University, and they may impose other duties, e.g., advance notice of publication. In the case of joint ownership, the University would agree not to dispose of its ownership rights without the consent of the other joint owner.

Intellectual Property may not be licensed or assigned to third parties without the prior written consent of the University, via the Office of the Provost and Chief Operating Officer. The decision whether to proceed to patent and/or license any Intellectual Property shall be solely within the discretion of the University, subject to the terms of any agreement(s) that supported or related to the creation of the applicable Intellectual Property.

In the case where the University has reviewed the Intellectual Property Opportunity and elects not to pursue Intellectual Property rights to the project, the University will execute the Waiver Letter in Appendix 5 and allow the Creator(s) to pursue the IP rights at their own expense. The University should make and communicate this decision to the Creator(s) within three (3) months of receiving the Intellectual Property Disclosure Form (Appendix 2), to allow Creator(s) adequate time to pursue the rights on their own.

In the case of Federal agency sponsorship, any “stand aside” as described in Section 3.6 must be made by releasing the invention to the Federal government, following which the Creator may directly petition the agency for a release of rights. Decisions by Federal sponsors to permit Creators to acquire ownership are generally made on a case-by-case basis, and the Federal Government retains for itself March-in and related rights.

Intellectual property developed under an independent consulting agreement is not subject to ownership by the University as long as University resources were not used in the conduct of the consulting work.

In the interest of furthering education and industry research, should the opportunity arise where it will be of benefit to the University to share ownership of a patent, the University will review the opportunity on a case-by-case basis.

11.24 Reporting Time Worked

Federal and State laws require that Alfred University must accurately record time worked by our employees for the week in which they perform the work. These “payroll records” are legal documents and must be certified by the employee as being correct and complete. Alfred University has established a “payroll week” as the period of time from Sunday 12:00 midnight to Saturday 11:59.59 p.m. of each week. In order to comply with these laws the following shall apply to all hourly paid employees of the University:

1. All time is to be recorded electronically in Banner web by the employee no later than Wednesday following the last day of a payroll period. It is to be approved by the supervisor and sent to the Payroll Department by Thursday/Friday following the last day of a payroll period.

2. All time actually worked in a payroll week will be accounted for during that week (whether authorized or unauthorized.)

3. All scheduled working time will be accounted for either as worked time or exception time, whether paid or unpaid. The Employee will be required to certify, by their signature (or electronically), that the time is an accurate depiction of their time record for that payroll week.

4. Under no circumstances will an employee work any time “off the clock” or fail to fully report actual time worked during a payroll week. This means that no “Comp Time” is allowed and any time missed during a week must either be made up during the same payroll week, must be excused by an established University pay exception or must be accounted for as unpaid.

5. University Pay Exceptions are: Approved Vacation, Sick Day(s), Holiday, Approved Bereavement, Jury Duty, Personal Day (1 per year), Floating Holiday (1 per year), Earned Merit Time (varies) and occasional legal or medical appointments (limited to 2 hours as long as all other scheduled hours are worked subject to Supervisor approval.)

6. All Overtime (in excess of normal schedule) must be approved in advance by the employee’s supervisor. Unapproved Overtime will be paid to the employee but will subject them to disciplinary action.

11.25 CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The employees of Alfred University recognize a shared responsibility to ensure that they conduct themselves in an unbiased manner and serve the goals of the University. It is their and the University’s responsibility to guard against conflicts of interest and commitment which might compromise the integrity and objectivity of the University community.

A conflict of interest is defined as any situation in which an individual is in a position to approve or influence a University action(s) which involves or could ultimately harm or benefit financially: (i) the individual; (ii) any member of his family; or (iii) any organization in which he or an immediate family member is a director, trustee, officer, or member, partner, or a shareholder with ownership interests of more than ten percent (10%).

Service as a director, trustee or officer of another not-for-profit entity with an exclusively charitable, educational or governmental purpose and exempt from taxation will not create a conflict of interest.

Every employee shall disclose any conflict of interest to a responsible representative of the University. In addition, by December 31st of each year, each employee shall complete and submit the "Alfred University Report on Outside Professional Activity and Potential Conflict of Interest" form ("COI Form") to his or her appropriate agency head. The employee shall accurately update the COI Form if the facts reported in the Form change.

11.26 CONSULTING POLICY

Eligibility: Regular Employees.

The term consulting is understood to refer to service performed by a staff member for outside organizations and refers to that assistance considered primarily advisory in nature. Such activity is recognized as a worthwhile activity that may add to the individual’s experience, knowledge and professional growth. It may also enhance the prestige of the University and provide the consultant with additional income. As an institution of higher education, the University is committed to making available to the larger community the special knowledge, experience, and intellectual competence of its staff and considers such activity a benefit to all concerned.

However, moral and ethical considerations are inevitably present in this activity. Potential problems include conflict of interest, interference with the performance of University duties, and improper use of University staff, equipment, materials and time. It is therefore the responsibility of any staff member contemplating such activity to fully inform, and receive the approval of, both the Supervisor and the Director of Human Resources in advance of beginning such activity. (Note: Proposals, and subsequent approval, must detail agreement related to use of University equipment/facilities and provide financial disclosure and arrangements for both the employee as well as the University as applicable.)

In general, the following conditions apply:

- Consulting either on or off campus of up to one day per week is permitted, provided it can be accomplished without interfering with the employee’s University responsibilities and/or, in the University’s judgment, creating a material conflict of interest;
- Consulting must be carefully undertaken with the employee acting as an individual and not as a University spokesperson;

Consulting should be undertaken only with careful examination of all aspects of the proposed activity in order to avoid those situations that might lead to conflict of interest or other unethical practice. (Note: It is generally considered improper for an employee to serve as a consultant on a research grant or other project of the university unless specifically identified as such in the proposal.)
